Volunteers

Chosen site for bench in glade.

Excavating holes for the bench legs.

Removing saplings after the bench is complete.

Worthy's Conservation Volunteers gather around the new bench.

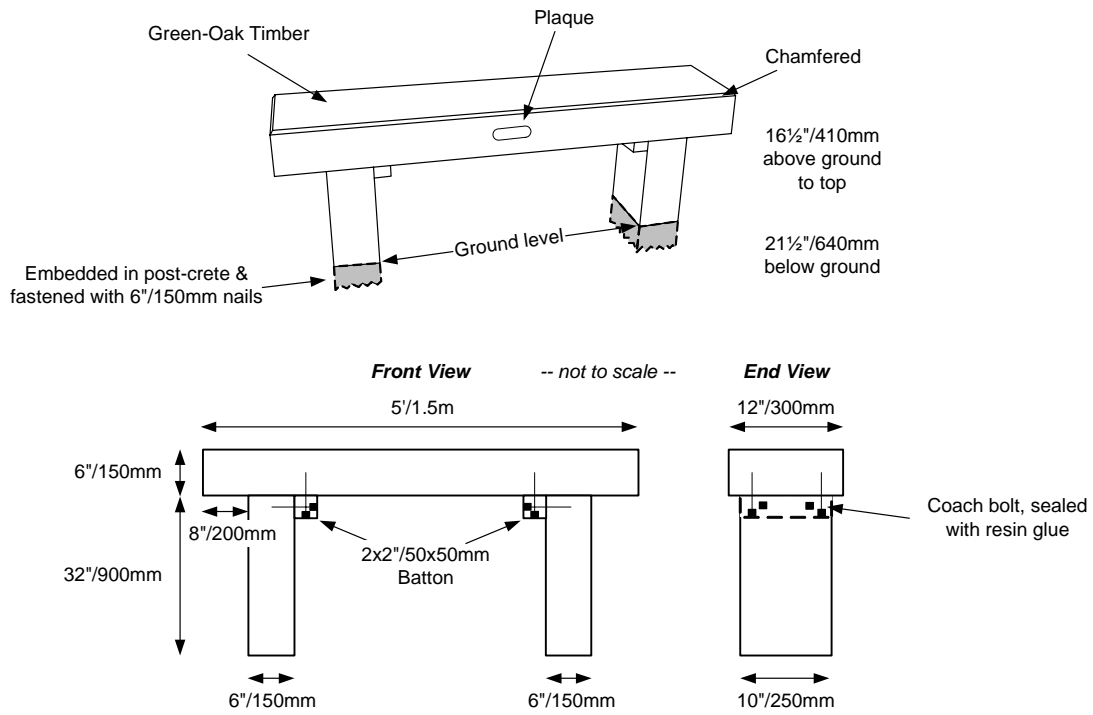

- Install new oak bench on previously prepared site on the disused railway line.
- Clear site of saplings and sow wildflower seed.
- Picnic lunch.
- Bench made of green-oak measuring 1500x300x150mm (5'x12"x6"), materials provided by Hampshire Paths Partnership.
- 12 volunteers (1 dog), 4 hours.
- Weather hot and sunny, although working in dappled shade.

The completed oak bench, a welcome sight for travellers.

Picnic lunch!
